

Peer Review III

By: Louise Thomson for Chantal Drolet

Guided Tour:

Explores and explains of how the ePortfolio is organized:

- An excellent job explaining the many navigation options that you have installed for your viewer. You have been very thorough!

Mentions why it is organized that way:

- You have explained why you chose to organize the site this way and its connection to your personal area of interest. That makes the experience richer for the viewer.

Demonstrates what was learned:

- You have discussed your learning path and have linked your learning to your own practice by including evidence of your film expertise.

Discusses the journey / highlights some of the considerations in constructing the ePortfolio:

- Metaphor and rationale for its choice is well-explained
- Demonstrates your learning throughout the program by utilizing posts from a variety of areas throughout the program
- Like that you discuss your own background and how it impacted your choices throughout the program

Uses critical thinking skills:

- Demonstrated in the careful consideration taken with navigation/layout and design

Highlights overarching theme / metaphor:

- theme is well-represented throughout

Integrates technology for a clear purpose & audience:

- Although you don't actually state the audience in the tour it is obvious to whom it is directed
- The technology is well-integrated thanks to your focus on digital film communications

General impression of guided tour:

An excellent piece of work, Chantal! Your professionalism is evident throughout and your use of film makes the project more interesting to navigate.

It is visually engaging and accompanied well by your audio.

A piece of work to be proud of!

Congratulations!

Cheers,

Louise
